Delilahs „If We Don't Shout“ EP

SHORTINFO BAND/ALBUM

Isabella Eder and Muriel Rhyner were 17 when they formed a band called „Delilahs“. They started as a hobby band but soon earned a lot of attention in Switzerland due to support gigs for international acts (Stereophonics, Maximo Park, Black rebel Motorcycle Club, ...), gigs in England, appearance at several national and international Openairs and their planned first album. But this album has never been released. Splitting up with their former management has put them into trouble. The band was blocked to release the album.

In Summer 2007 Michaela Baldinger started drumming for the band. Their former drummer Sonja Zimmerli left earlier in the year.

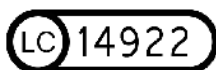

The only way to get music out to the fans was to write new songs and that's what they did. In December 2007 the band recorded a new EP "if we don't shout", containing 5 new tracks. This EP is going to be released on 4. April 2008. Delilahs are back, stronger than ever.
